

The Adventures of Titch & Mitch Shipwrecked!

Garth Edwards

Illustrations by Max Stasyuk

The first in the series of Titch & Mitch adventures for young readers and bed-timing parents.

It's not easy being a little pixie in a big world! Garth Edwards's charming and humorous stories follow the exploits of two lively pixies that will delight and entertain children worldwide.

These stunningly illustrated adventures engage and stimulate young imaginations with humour, humanity and magic.

Shipwrecked and washed up on an island, Titch and Mitch discover a whole new world of adventure, danger and wonderful new friends.

From yellow seagulls to flying bicycles, talking turkeys to dragonmice with toothache.

Enjoy making friends? Going on visits? Helping others? Adventure?

Then welcome to the world of Titch and Mitch.

The Author - Garth Edwards

Garth Edwards began his professional life as a biochemist. He developed his literary talents telling the Titch & Mitch stories to his children. Years later, he told the same stories to his grandchildren, who didn't understand why they couldn't buy Titch & Mitch at the bookshop. Finally, Garth bowed to popular demand and wrote the stories down. Garth Edwards lives in the Wirral, with his wife, Patty and dog, Juno.

The Illustrator - Max Stasyuk

Max has illustrated many works for children and also undertaken many advertising and design commissions. He lives and works in the Ukraine, just outside Kiev.
